

The Tupelo SPAFER RoadHouse was formed in November of 2008 and meets monthly on the first Saturday of each month at the Link Centre at 1800 West Main Street. We begin gathering for coffee, conversation and donut holes at 9:30 AM and our program starts at 10 AM. We use DVD's of interesting speakers on the many facets of religious thought, plus videos that are posted on the Internet on a wide variety of topics. Discussion of the material presented follows. At noon we adjourn for lunch at some local restaurant. Lunch is "Dutch Treat" and not a required part of the meeting, but provides an opportunity for further conversation and fellowship. We usually have 24 give or take for the meeting and 12 to 16 who stay for lunch. In addition we maintain a lending library of books that can be borrowed, read and returned. To be place on the email list for information about all meetings, email Jim High at highjim@gmail.com or call Jim at (662) 401-1932.
